It is a very fun opportunity where you meet a lot of new people and learn a lot about the craft of being a percussionist.

The director academy one-on-one sessions were awesome! Having the opportunity to go to a session and then meet one-on-one with that faculty member gave me more perspective on the presentation and I was able to ask about how I could apply it to my current job.

You were not kidding about life-changing! I can't wait to come back next year.
