BOA BLAST at UNT

presented by
YAMAHA

THURSDAY, JULY 20, 2023

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH TEXAS, DENTON, TX

8:30 A.M. REGISTRATION

Music for All, Bands of America, and University of North Texas Wind Studies are thrilled to announce BOA BLAST at UNT, a one-day summer camp for students held in collaboration with University of North Texas Wind Studies. BOA BLAST at UNT will focus on increasing achievement in the marching arts for high school students, including winds, color guard, and drum majors.

Leadership is a big focus of the day for all. Students work with members & staff of the Carolina Crown; wind players will perform the Star-Spangled Banner and a musical excerpt of the Carolina Crown production at the DCI Denton Show.

This One-Day Interactive Event Includes:

- Leadership Sessions with Fran Kick
- Ready, Set, Move! Dynamic Stretching and across-the-floors with Jeff Young & Staff
- Breakout Session for Brass & Woodwinds
- Breakout Session for Color Guard
- Breakout session for Drum Majors with Bobby Lambert, Coordinator of the Bands of America Drum Major Institute
- Drum Corps International's World-Class Carolina Crown serves as this years drum corps-in-residence. Every BOA BLAST student will experience first-hand the instructional excellence and inspirational impact immersed side-by-side and even "inside the circle" with these talented performers, designers, and teachers.
- Wind players will play part of the Carolina Crown show with Crown at the DCI Denton Show
- Color guard students will work with Carolina Crown color guard one-on-one
- Wind players will play the Star-Spangled Banner before the DCI Denton Show
- Includes lunch and dinner
- Includes DCI Denton Show admittance
- Includes a BOA BLAST t-shirt
